The Messenger

Fairfield Glade Community Church

Fairfield Glade

Dear Friends in Christ,

“With gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God. (Colossians 3:16).”

Gratitude is a thankful appreciation for what is received. With gratitude, we recognize the goodness in our lives. As Christians, we acknowledge that the source of that goodness is God, the Creator of all that is good. “For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, provided it is received with thanksgiving” (1 Timothy 4:4). Gratitude helps us connect to the goodness within us and around us, as well as the creator of that goodness, God.

Evidence shows that a vibrant attitude of gratitude consistently results in a life of increased joyfulness. Gratitude helps us feel more positive emotions, cherish good experiences, improve our mental and physical health, better cope with adversity, and build stronger relationships of love.

We may feel and express gratitude in various ways. We can spend time thinking about enjoyable memories of experiences for which we are thankful. We can be like the Psalmist: “I will call to mind the deeds of the Lord; I will remember your wonders of old” (Psalm 77:11).

What are some of our favorite memories that cause us to feel grateful, blessed?

We can also feel and express gratitude for our current lives, not taking for granted the goodness we are experiencing now.

The first time I had to be separated from my wife, Lilly, because of being deployed, I learned quickly, and painfully, how much I had unknowingly taken her presence with me for granted. There is some truth to the old proverb “absence makes the heart grow fonder.”

Are there people in our lives that we sometimes take for granted? Do we take time to feel and express gratitude for all of the goodness that is in our lives, especially the goodness of other people, whether our spouse or a stranger?

People have learned that one of the best ways to enhance our sense of gratitude is to notice specifically new things we’re grateful for every day and write them down in a journal. Gratitude journaling works because it slowly changes the way we perceive situations by adjusting what we focus on.

Finally, we can increase our sense of gratitude by the way we view the future. Do we see the future with eyes that focus on gloom and doom and despair, or do we look ahead through our faith and hope?

My prayer for us at Community Church is the latter. “May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope” (Romans 15:13).

There are a lot of things we can’t control in life, but gratitude is not one of them. We all have the inner power of the Holy Spirit to change and cultivate our level of gratitude. And for this I’m thankful.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,
James

FALL STEWARDSHIP CAMPAIGN

Thank you for the responsible and consistent financial support you have given Fairfield Glade Community Church this year. Your expression of Gratitude to God for all He has done in your lives enables blessings to be experienced by many. That is why Gratitude is the key expression for the fall Stewardship Campaign for 2020.

The Gratitude Campaign, which starts this month and ends with our commitment Sunday on November 24, will make the point that giving to the church has a way of enriching many lives. And, giving to the church comes about for three reasons:

1. We want to be a part of something that changes lives.
That is what the church is about. That is what makes a difference in the world. The biblical imperative is clear on that because, the church helps feed the hungry, clothe the naked, heal the sick, give hope to the hopeless, and bring peace to the troubled.
2. We appreciate the leadership at FGCC. Pastor James has given himself in the role of Good Shepherd with his touch of healing, help, and hope. The staff contributes so much to the on-going blessings we experience as we take part in the varied opportunities of the Body of Christ here in Fairfield Glade.
3. We experience financial stability here. J. Christopher, in his book on stewardship says, "People don't give to a 'sinking ship.'" FGCC is not a sinking ship! A vision of the future is being nurtured. Fulfilling that vision is being strategically planned. A spirit of unconditional love puts us on a solid foundation.

People want to see things happen. There is no question that FGCC is active and alive in ministry. We are doing something for the Kingdom. With the new campaign of Gratitude to God for 2020, and with God's help, we are going to make sure it continues to happen.

As we place our hand in God's, we make it all happen as we practice good stewardship with our time as a volunteer, our talent as a Child of God, and our financial support as a response of Gratitude.

Military Christmas Care Boxes (Updated Information)

Thank you to our congregants who made very generous contributions toward the Women's Fellowship Military Christmas Care Project!

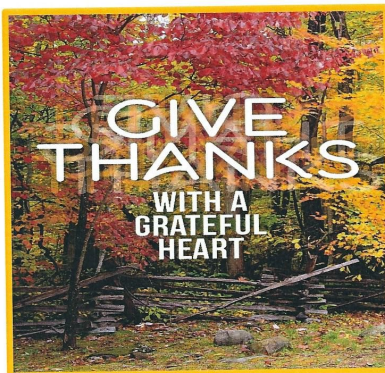

The Care Boxes will be sent to our service members from the 2nd Battalion, 506th Infantry Regiment, 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault) who are deployed at three locations in Africa (Garoua, Cameroon; Djibouti; and Bizerte, Tunisia). Our goal is to send thirty (30) boxes to each location for a total of ninety (90) boxes to make Christmas special for these soldiers who are deployed during the holidays. As their Commander stated, "For many of them, this is their first deployment and Christmas away from home."

The Women's Fellowship will assemble the donated items and begin packing and wrapping at their next meeting on November 13th at 9:30 in Fellowship Hall. All are welcome!

Thank you for your support and generosity!

How Do You Do.....

We Are the Freels, Ed and Jamie. We arrived in Fairfield Glade in April of 2016. We visited several different churches in Fairfield Glade. When we visited Community Church the members made us feel so welcome that we knew that we had found the right church for us. We joined in June of 2018.

We both are native Tennesseans, Jamie being born in Nashville and Ed in Oak Ridge. Ed was a Mechanical Engineer involved in the Design and Construction of industrial facilities, mainly in the steel production sector. Jamie was a Respiratory Therapist and later worked in hospital quality and risk management for a large healthcare company. We lived in Knoxville for a number of years until Ed was transferred to Dallas, Texas. There we stayed for 25 years before moving to Fairfield Glade. Ed's last ten career years he worked for a startup company.

Jamie and Ed meet in Knoxville after Jamie graduated from University of Tennessee. Her roommate was dating Ed's next door neighbor when they met, and the rest is history. They are celebrating 38 years of happy marriage. Coincidentally, we are still together, the next door neighbor and his date are not.

During these 38 years our interests have been diverse and enjoyable. We both love to travel, go scuba diving, go on hikes, kayaking and now trying to learn to play golf. We are hoping this does not have an effect on the word enjoyable.

Even though we have been residents of the Glade and members of Community Church for a relatively short time we have enjoyed it immensely. The beauty all around us, the wonderful people we have met and the friends we have made have brought much joy. Ed adds that the following has also made him very happy when they moved from Dallas; the seven million people left behind, the summer heat and all the traffic. Reminds the writer of the joy of leaving Metro NYC.

They remind all that the church is an extension of our family. Get involved in the church, volunteer, reach out and invite others to join in common interests.

November Women's Fellowship Activity

On Wednesday, November 13th the Women's Fellowship will meet at the church at 9:30 in the Fireside Room for a social ½ hour and then will begin packaging the military Christmas boxes for shipment to our troops. There will be light refreshments, social time and fun while packing the boxes. Please plan to attend. The more help we have the better. Hope to see you there. Let's make the Holidays special in some way for our troops.

No Thanksgiving dinner plans yet?

Join us for the best Thanksgiving dinner pot-luck in Fairfield Glade. Yes, on Thursday, November 28th at noon the annual Fairfield Glade Community Church's Thanksgiving dinner will take place.

Turkey, mashed potatoes, gravy, rolls and drinks will be provided by the church. Bring your favorite Thanksgiving side dish, your own place settings and a hearty appetite. For a mere cost of $3.00 per person you'll have more turkey, dressing, desserts and all the "fixins" you can eat and you won't have to cook or clean up. These are everyone's traditional holiday dishes, folks. We are talking some really good food. It will definitely be an event not to be missed. So, bring your family or invite your neighbors and friends. But, make sure you sign-up early so we'll know how many turkeys to roast.

Sign-ups will begin on Sunday October 20th in the Fellowship Hall and continue through the 24th of November. Just look for the poster board with Turkeys on it.

If you are interested in roasting a turkey, assisting with set-up, serving or clean-up please indicate on the sign-up sheet. Turkey bakers will be reimbursed for the cost of the turkey if you wish.

MORGAN SCOTT PROJECT UPDATE- October 12, 2019

Just to let you know that Morgan Scott has added on an addition 28x18 feet in their thrift store that allows them to take more items such as furniture. This gives them the ability to increase their income from higher priced items. If you have any large furniture items you wish to donate, they have a truck that will come to Fairfield Glade to pick them up. You can call them directly at 423-965-3131.

To recap recent projects, they provided over 600 backpacks to needy children going back to school, they sponsored over 20 work groups from churches that pay to come and help with mission projects such as wheelchair ramps, porches, bathroom rehabs etc. for the needy. The Good Earth Program provided 294 families with seeds and plants to grow their own food. Emergency aid is available for unexpected bills that some are not able to pay. The recent RAM medical clinic was held and served 116 people. There are many needs in the Morgan & Scott Counties where the state does offer assistance for education, but the need is still for travel expenses, uniforms etc. for those trying to better themselves. The Food Pantry gives out food boxes every Friday and our church helps with these items donated monthly. Additional food is purchased through Second Harvest and perishable items are donated from churches in Oak Ridge and Knoxville. The Christmas Giveaway for children is coming up in December and your donations are greatly appreciated.

REQUIRED MINIMUM DISTRIBUTION

Have you taken your required minimum distribution from your retirement accounts?

If you are over 70½ years of age, the Internal Revenue Service requires that you begin withdrawing a minimum amount of money from your individual retirement account(s).

Required minimum distribution (RMD) must be withdrawn by December 31st of each year. Should you have multiple IRA accounts, you may choose to take RMDs from one or more of your accounts, as long as you take the required cumulative total for all of your IRA accounts. The amount of your RMD is based on your age and your IRA account balance for the preceding year (as determined by the IRS). Your account holder will be able to tell you what that amount is.

Despite the seemingly mandatory nature of the RMDs, there is one option that can help lower the taxes that RMDs would otherwise trigger. You can transfer up to $100,000 from your IRAs directly to a qualified charity (i.e. Fairfield Glade Community Church), and the donation will be free from income taxes even if you don't itemize.

Important to remember ... if you forget to take your RMD, the IRS can impose a 50% excise tax on what should have been taken out. So if you have not taken out your RMD or aren't sure, contact your IRA account holder for to confirm your status. And consider making a tax-free donation to our church.
